

Calgary; [TRESSPASSING] on the decaying corpse of the american cowboy

I overheard at some point, somewhere and in the cadance of some voice ... that could only belong to a stranger.
I overheard, that we built this city on rock
N
roll.

[Rock, the stone in the current, tantamount to the [elbow] river itself. resonant energy, the spirit of the city, the soul.]

[Roll, times Incessant acceleration, transformation, the life force, the blood of the world, the [elbow] river itself, 3 dimensional space / skinned and flayed]

[THE ELBOW]

Due to the literal bloodshed it takes to colonize a terrestrial area, and the inevitable decomposition of all settler colonialist culture, the elbow is transformed into a desecrated grave, we gorge ourselves on the decay.... but it is not the soul of the land that we mourn here nor is it the souls of those sacrificed to create Cowshit City but instead the [un]resting place of a podunk zeitgeist, the apparition of the last cowboy.

[THE COWBOY]

jerkoff.

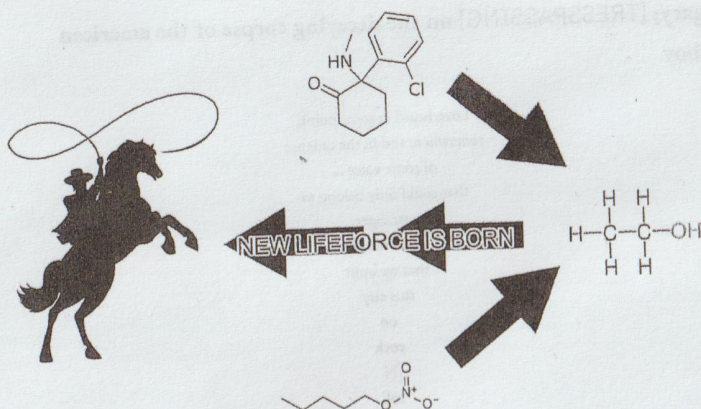

<--- YEAH, that's a cowboy thing....

... the leather remains, the leather shall always remain.

- Mama's... don't let your babies grow up to be cowboys
- The greatest outdoor show on earth!
- The divine alchemy of the self
- Being a man means acting like a desperate puppy fucktoy
- Being a woman means drinking way too much bourbon and having biting contests
- Que simply
- Never shoot first, hit a smaller man, or take unfair advantage.
- Combine all ingredients except soda water into a cocktail mixing tin. Add ice and shake until well combined. Fill a tall Collins or highball glass with ice half way. Pour cocktail mixture into glass. Top with soda water and serve.
- Day 14/14 no shower challenge
- Be tough, but always fair.
- The cowboy hat is often the pride and joy of the cowboy wearing it.
- Queering John Wayne
- NEVER FORGET life goes on...

[THE CORPSE]

So much of cowboy culture is influenced by plains nations like the Métis and Blackfoot yet due to Incessant autodestructive acceleration of the cowboy zeitgeist [pronounced dead 09/20/2024] there exists only a false materialistic fantasy of working class and life on the Great Plains. In an effort to restore order TRESSPASSING now asks the reader to assume the role of vessel, allow the new cowboy spirit to incubate within you.

EVENT NOTES;

TRANSMission 1: On the evening of 09/20/2024 through to the morning of 09/21/2024 Cult of Hounds in equilibrium with Cult of Perversion took action in the conjuration and mediation of the BIRTH of the neo cowboy. This event was actioned through a guided séance of ritualistic sonic meditation and deliberate [codified] psychick reprogramming... from the dead womb of COWBOY1 their gloved hands carried COWBOY2 into being and with skillful care they documented the process of birth and transformation into being. The phenomenon observed of COWBOY2's presence metaphysically and psychospiritually had implications that are tantamount to the first layer of rodeo enlightenment being revealed.

....WE'LL COME TO YOU"

We were facing east in the sculpture garden bathed in hard light and a freighter's sick bells

There was an aquamarine cloud over inglewood
I said I said I said

I said something about horse racing in West Virginia and you listened in earnest and the water hit the confluence

Months later we'd all be cut like diamonds
but it was April then and everything was noise
